Golden West College -- Stage West

Love Letters

By A.R. Gurney

Directed by Martie Ramm

Performance Dates:

February 8, 9 @ 7:30pm and February 10 @ 2:00pm

A unique and imaginative theatre piece which, in the words of the author, "needs no theatre, no lengthy rehearsal, no special set, no memorization of lines, and no commitment from its two actors beyond the night of performance." The piece is comprised of letters exchanged over a lifetime between two people who grew up together, went their separate ways, but continued to share confidences.

Casting:

Andrew Makepeace Ladd III and Melissa Gardner: Both born to wealth, childhood friends, romantically attached. They continue to exchange letters through boarding school, college years, marriage, careers, affairs, and ultimately, until they become spiritually as close as only true friends and lovers can be.

Creating an 8-person company for these three performances (1 stage manager, 1 assistant stage manager, 6 actors). Each pair of actors, 1 male and 1 female, will star in one of the three performances. When not performing, actors will serve as ushers, house managers, board operators, dressers, etc. Time commitment is not extensive.
